

What is a Micro-Course?

A: A Micro-Course is a self-paced, asynchronous course that typically features one-third the workload of a traditional three-credit course.

Are Micro-Courses available for Business students?

A: Yes, Micro-Courses are available for Business students. Business students can use Micro-Courses to fulfill any free or Business-related elective credit hour requirements.

Can I use Micro-Courses to fulfill any free or Business-related elective credit hour requirements?

A: Yes, you can use Micro-Courses to fulfill any free or Business-related elective credit hour requirements.

