

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Advanced Financial Analysis

COURSE NUMBER: MBA 7294

PRE-REQUISITE: MBA 7200

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course examines major policy-making areas in corporate finance and the impact of alternative policies on the value of the firm. Emphasis is placed on strengthening financial decision-making skills. Advanced topics include capital investment policy, financing and capital structure policies, dividend policy, and corporate control.

MAJOR INSTRUCTIONAL GOALS:

GOAL A:

The student will demonstrate a mastery of financial statement analysis and forecasting

B-2 Describe the impact of

- E-3 Identify risks to the balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow related to currency exchange rates.
- E-4 Determine appropriate currency risk management techniques including natural hedges and hedging with derivatives.

GOAL F:

The student will compute the intrinsic value of the corporation.

Learning Objectives: The student will:

- F-1 Explain the valuation process.
- F-2 Apply multi stage valuation models.
- F-3 Calculate corporate value using the free cash flow method.