TEXTBOOK: Career and College Readiness Counseling in P-12 Schools, Second Edition. Authors: Jennifer R. Curry and Amy Milsom

College of Education Program Attributes

The manner in which we prepare educational personnel is informed by eight essential attributes: (1) ensuring that programs are knowledge-based; (2) viewing educational personnel as learners, including a focus on deconstructing past experiences as learners in coursework and field experiences and developing appropriate knowledge of content and discourse of disciplines to be taught; (3) contextual and cultural sensitivity; (4) enabling authentic participation, collegiality, and collaboration; (5) facilitating inquiry daily work; (6) building an ongoing developmental program that allows for continuous improvement, experimentation, and professional growth; (7) ensuring that programs are standards-driven (8) and ensuring that programs promote the effective use of technology.

Expectations for School Counseling Candidates:

1. Read the assigned chapters and complete tasks before the scheduled class meeting.
2. All candidates are expected to attend class each week, arrive on time, complete the readings before class, and to be prepared to discuss them intelligently in class. Read with a questioning attitude rather than for absorption of facts: What do I believe to be true? What is particularly challenging? What is hard for me to understand? How do these ideas relate to others covered in other classes?
3. Attend class each week; arrive on time for class. Absences must be approved by instructor prior to absence with the exception of a valid emergency. Missing more than 2 class meetings will result in a failing grade.
4. Candidates are expected to adhere to the WU Academic Integrity Policy. Detailed information can be found by clicking on the following link:
<https://www.wilmu.edu/studentlife/acadintegrity.aspx>
5. Additionally, all work completed and submitted for this course must be original in nature and must be created during the time frame of this course. Candidates may not submit the same work for two different assignments.
6. You may be asked to provide professional feedback to peers. Since feedback is an important aspect of this course, please use professional well thought-out statements when offering feedback. When done well, appropriate and professional peer feedback can greatly enhance the learning experience for all involved.
7. Please turn off all potentially disruptive electronic devices such as cell phones. No texting during class time. Please be respectful of your classmates and instructor.
8. All candidates must follow the basic format of current APA style when writing papers and submitting assignments. The APA Manual is a required text for this course.
9. All candidates must use their WU wildcats email address. Correspondence for this class will be via Canvas and your WU wildcats email account. No exceptions.
