
A-3 Be knowledgeable about the various medical practitioners who prescribe medications, and the counselor's role in establishing collaborative relationships with clients, and medical practitioners for referrals and treatment collaboration. (F.1.b, C.2.h)

F.1.b. the multiple professional roles and functions of counselors across specialty areas, and their relationships with human service and integrated behavioral health care systems, including interagency and interorganizational collaboration and consultation

C.2.h. classifications, indications, and contraindications of commonly prescribed psychopharmacological medications for appropriate medical referral and consultation

GOAL B:

Understand ethical issues, advocacy issues, and current controversial issues related to psychotropic medications. (CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING STANDARDS C.2.h)

Knowledge Learning Outcomes: The student will:

B-1 Be knowledgeable about current ethical issues, advocacy issues, and other controversial issues around psychotropic medications. (C.2.h)

C.2.h. classifications, indications, and contraindications of commonly prescribed psychopharmacological medications for appropriate medical referral and consultation