

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Management Information Systems

COURSE NUMBER: MIS 320

I. MAJOR INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

Objective A-1: Demonstrate an understanding of how information systems support operational, tactical, and strategic business activities.

Objective B-1: Describe the function of information systems in business organizations.

Objective C-1: Demonstrate an understanding of the managerial and ethical aspects of information resource management.

Objective D-1: Describe the phases of the system implementation process from management perspective.

Objective E-1: Create an original paper analyzing a current issue in management information systems.

Objective F-1: Demonstrate basic library research skills.

Objective G-1: Demonstrate the ability to express ideas orally and in writing.

II. CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are expected to attend class and participate actively and in a positive way. Questions and relevant observations are encouraged and enrich the experience of the entire class.

Computers in the classrooms are intended to be used as tools to enhance the students' learning experience. Instant messaging, gaming, emailing, and surfing the web are distractions to the student, the surrounding students, and the instructor and constitute inappropriate behavior. Students are ethically obliged to avoid these and similar practices.